Eco Growth Food Waste Recycling Pilot Project

The Village of Cremona, Eco Growth Environmental and the Cremona Bottle Depot have joined together for a six month pilot project, whereby resident's organic waste is taken to the Bottle Depot and put through a dehydration system. Through this process, Eco Growth Environmental will turn this dehydrated food waste into a Biomass that can be used for Energy.

This pilot project could reduce Cremona's Carbon Emissions (carbon footprint) significantly. The official grand opening for this project is currently scheduled for March 26th, 2022.
