

VILLAGE OF CREMONA NEWSLETTER

December 2020

Council Highlights

Council discussed if they should create a mandatory mask by-law mandating that all people must wear a mask when inside a public building or business. Council decided that at this time they didn't feel it necessary to create a bylaw. Council will follow the public health measures mandated by the federal and provincial government.

PUBLIC NOTICE:

Please do not dispose of any medical waste in the recycle bins - Masks, hoses, gloves etc all goes into the garbage bins. When used medical supplies are mixed with recyclables the whole load goes into landfill as contaminated.

If you need a container for Sharps - i.e.: needles - please visit the Cremona Pharmacy to pick up a proper "sharps" container

Help Stop The Spread

We don't want to lose anyone in our community. We know its been a hard year but please don't become complacent.

Please keep gatherings small, socialize safely, monitor your symptoms, stay home if sick and get tested, wash your hands regularly and wear a mask when you can not stay 6' from others.

Please keep up to date on COVID safety measures at www.alberta.ca/coronavirus-info-for-albertans.aspx
